

Ledrappier-Young formula and exact dimensionality of self-affine measures

Antti Käenmäki
University of Jyväskylä, Finland.

Abstract

We solve the long standing open problem on exact dimensionality of self-affine measures. We show that every self-affine measure on the plane is exact dimensional regardless of the choice of the defining iterated function system. The measures also satisfy the Ledrappier-Young formula.